Let your love explode this spring!

We can hardly believe that twelve months have rolled around since the last TasPride Festival. But it has and we are extremely proud to present the 2011 TasPride Festival, celebrating the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer community in Tasmania.

Each year the Festival continues to grow in diversity and choice of what is on offer. We like to mix it up from year to year and add new events sitting alongside perennial favourites and we hope you agree that the 2011 offering does just that.

Much loved Taspride Festival regular, Dolly Diamond, kicks off the opening weekend with her one-diva, glitzy and glamorous live comedy cabaret show Dolly Diamond: More Than A Woman. The Halloween Party is always a favourite in the programme and this year the costume theme is 'Cute as Hell', so go on, unleash your inner devil.

Start organising your team now for the annual Quiz Night, hosted by the sensational Miz Ima Starr, combining her pizzazz and style with the craziest queer questions ever dreamt up. This year the Festival will close with not one but three events. In a first for TasPride Festival, the Pride Parade will take us through the streets of Hobart ending at Parliament House Lawns. Then that night the boys from Talking Poofy will have you doubled over with laughter before you head off to mark the end of the Festival at the Closing Night Party, hosted by Skittle. For the full programme of events visit taspride.com

This is our Festival for you - come out and celebrate.

Who we are

TasPride Inc is run by a group of enthusiastic and hard working committee members, who together plan and deliver inclusive events and activities which celebrate and strengthen the Tasmanian gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer community.

TasPride Inc aims to facilitate events which encourage positive interactions between members of the Tasmanian GLBTIQ community and their family and friends, promoting harmonious and inclusive interaction. It works to develop partnerships with like-minded organisations and groups to promote awareness of TasPride and its activities across Tasmania.

The committee currently consists of Dean Duggan - President, Vincent Bound - Vice President, Tracey Wing - Secretary, Sielito - Treasurer, Richard Hale - Public Officer, committee members: Phoebe Adams, Marcus Barker, Rebecca Dorgelo and Olivia Hogarth. For information on joining the committee and helping organising future events like the 2012 Queens Ball and TasPride Festival, please visit taspride.com, we'd love to have you on board.

TasPride Inc is a membership organisation and relies on the financial support of its members. Membership is open to everyone and if you would like to become a member and support TasPride, not to mention receive great member benefits and discounts, visit taspride.com for further information. Your small membership fee allows us to continue to plan and deliver events like the 2011 TasPride Festival.

TasPride would like to thank the following who have helped bring you the 2011 TasPride Festival: Sue Goldstone, Len Cuff, Susan Farrell, Ester Di Noia - Wrest Point, Stuart Heathorn - Centertainment, David Gunton - The Venue, Rosemary Miller - SAC

experience
Tasmania

Morning tea on a perfect crescent of white sand. In the footsteps of piners and miners. Imaginative art in historic spaces. A massage in the wilderness. The real Tasmania can be exciting and energetic, or relaxing and luxurious. It's up to you. If it's the absolute best experience Tasmania can offer, it must be pure.
